

MLRC News

- New evictions procedure from local authority housing: MLRC has published an information note on the new procedure for evictions from local authority housing. This procedure came into effect on 13 April 2015 under the Housing (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2014, read more...
- MLRC has held a training session for local councillors on housing and related social welfare law.

Information training session for Local County Councillors

MLRC held an information training session on housing law and related social welfare law for local county councillors on Thursday 19th November 2015.

Our training session gave practical advice and information to help the Councillors deal effectively with their constituent's housing issues, read more...

MLRC training

As part of MLRC's work, we provide training in housing law and related social welfare law to organisations working in the field of homelessness. If your organisation is interested in taking part in one of our training sessions, we would be very happy to hear from you and discuss the training that would be most useful for you. Please contact Shauna on 01 4537459 or at shauna@mercylaw.

About MLRC

Mercy Law Resource Centre is an Independent Law Centre and registered charity providing free legal advice, representation and befriending services to people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in the areas of social housing and social welfare law. For more information about our work please see our website at www.mercylaw.ie.

Contact Us

Copyright © 2016 Mercy Law Resource Centre, All rights reserved.

Forward to a friend

You are receiving this email because you signed up via our website or requested to be added to our e-zine list.

Our mailing address is:

Mercy Law Resource Centre
25 Cork Street
Dublin, Dublin 8
Ireland

Add us to your address book

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences