MLRC news

- MLRC thanks those involved in our recent Befrienders training day, read more...
- MLRC welcomes Bláithín Ní Chróinín, trainee solicitor with Mason Hayes & Curran and Mary Ann Sullivan, NUI Galway Clinical Legal Education student.
- On 8 March MLRC was delighted to meet and welcome to our offices public interest lawyers from Croatia, Kosovo and Slovenia. The lawyers, who run independent law centres in these countries were here on an intensive research visit, coordinated by the Citizens Information Service. The lawyers pointed out that their centres are not yet specialised in particular legal areas but rather work as a general practice. They were very interested in MLRC's work with our specialism and focus on housing law and policy.

Events

On Friday, 9 May 2014 a conference on the enforcement of economic, social and cultural rights will take place in the Emmet Theatre, Arts Building, Trinity College Dublin. The conference will discuss how ESC rights are enforced in different legal orders and will address the question of how ESC rights might be enforced if the Constitutional Convention's recommendation to extend constitutional protection recommendation is adopted. More details on this conference, which MLRC will also be attending, click here.
